

A vertical photograph of a forest floor covered in fallen autumn leaves. The leaves are a mix of vibrant orange, deep red, and bright yellow, creating a rich, textured carpet. In the background, the dark silhouettes of tree trunks and branches are visible against a lighter sky, suggesting a late afternoon or overcast day.

Like A Tree, The Heart Grows Through The Seasons. Man Struggles With A Life-long Search For Self-identity. Just As The Tree Cycles Each Year From Budding New Growth To Barren Branches, So Too, Man Faces The Challenge Of Each Season.

The Cycle Of Growth, Not Unlike The Tree, Is Forever Maturing As Nature Leaves Her Marks Deep Inside.

Thoughts On Teachers

May, 1977

I have come to realize that no teacher can reveal to me that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of my knowledge

I have found that if he is indeed wise he does not bid me to enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads me to the threshold of my own mind

He can give me his love — and often he has but not his thoughts, for I have my own thoughts. He has taught me that life goes not backward, nor does it tarry with yesterday. He has taught me to go forth into tomorrow. He has challenged me to grow

October, 1977

My first Homecoming now comes to a close. There's more to it than anyone could ever have put into words. I, and all of my classmates, gained more than the competitive aspect of Homecoming.

I didn't think it possible for so many people to work together and accomplish the things that we did. The whole Homecoming experience helped me, as I'm sure it did many of my classmates, to feel much more a part of the St. Mary's community. Getting to know more of the kids in my class made me feel like a part of the class itself.

The fun, worries, joys, laughter and tears that were experienced are what will make Homecoming special in the years to come.

July, 1978

My sophomore year was a very eventful one. The Homecoming activities and our second place float, the very successful candle sale, Christmas Mist and all the other functions helped to bring our class closer together.

The carelessness and laughter of summer is a close comparison to what my class has accomplished. The time will soon come when the friendships of last year can be renewed again.

I just hope that our class can continue to mature in their ideas and actions so that next year can be a prosperous one in the things that we encounter — if not, "we lose."

We are happy now because God wills it,
No matter how barren the past may have been,
Tis enough for us now that the leaves are green,
We sit in the warm shade and feel right well
How the sap creeps up and the blossoms swell,

That skies are clear and grass is growing,
The breeze comes whispering in our ear

April, 1978

In the "fall" of my high school years, I have learned to become more aware of myself, and closer to my classmates. I'm not hindered by pride any more, in so much as the way people look at me for what I do, rather than what I am. Because of this realization, I am able to appreciate the things we've done as a class. The faults and mistakes will be easier to correct in the "winter" of my S.M.H. years.

I will always remember our unexpected victory of the '78' Homecoming wall, the hard work that went into the pancake breakfast, and that special night of the "Junior Ring Dance."

My Junior year has been a time of trial and error, some things lost, and some values gained, all are a part of my growing experience. I know that I cannot be alone in these feelings because I can see and feel the change in my classmates and friends. They have experienced the same growth, and have shared with me, as I have with them.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference

(Graduation Day)

I now realize that the time has come to start new beginnings and let go of the so treasured security of SMH. Its not an easy thing to have to face when I look back on the memories. The excitement of my first Homecoming, the special feeling of "Christmas by Candlelight", our circle of unity at the Junior Class mass, where the long awaited Class rings were blessed, ending it all with "Precious and Few", a memory never to be forgotten, and now my Senior year coming to a close.

If I had it to do over again I wouldn't want to change a single memory because of all that I learned through them.

If there were one thought I would leave to those who follow after me, it would be this:

Make the most of the time you have now to fulfill your dreams and goals. Because before you know it, they're gone, and all that remains, are the memories.

May, 1978

My activities this year have required many hours after school. The time spent, however, has been beneficial to my personal, class, and school spirit.

Because of these I have gotten closer to many people I never would have known them had I not participated. After all this, I can't imagine a week going by without staying after school almost everyday and spending my Saturday afternoons working on one thing or another. Maybe Ma's right - I really do live at school.

Numberous hours I spent at school planning for that special class mass, or working until I was ready to collapse at basketball practice, and other similar things.

Despite the hard work, aches, pains and criticisms, I don't regret even for one minute, the time I have spent. The rewards and personal satisfaction that I received were great and I learned LIFE through the process.

Christmas 1977

The hard work and effort of the four classes during Christmas decorating night put the whole school in the Christmas spirit.

The theme of this year's Christmas Dance was "Christmas Must". It was sponsored by the Sophomore and Freshmen classes. The long planning by class officers, moderators and committees was evident in the success of the dance.

"For Unto Us A Child Is Born" was the theme of the Christmas mass. The liturgy was celebrated by Bishop Edward D. Head. The singing and Christmas atmosphere put the entire S.A.F.F. family into the holiday spirit of giving and sharing.

Musical Theatre Productions

Musical Theatre is the biggest organization at St. Mary's. We have completed two concerts-one for Open House and the annual Christmas concert during the fall and winter. "Bye Bye Birdie" and a choral festival at Alfred State University highlighted the second semester. Our final performance is singing at the Graduation mass.

We feel our most significant accomplishment is the groups' ability to work with a trained professional dance instructor as an added asset to the Musical Theatre Production Class. Also the exposure to a live theatrical production is a learning experience for the talented cast and crews.

The most important contribution of last spring's "South Pacific" was the total involvement of all the four classes and the sound of music. The students became islanders, nurses, and seabees in just two short months. The hard work of the cast and crews transported the audience to the beautiful islands of Bali Hai. Aside from the many setbacks, like the blizzard which shortened our rehearsal time, the play went on. The cast included Thom Roaldi (Emile De Becque) Ruth Hadsall (Nellie Forbush), Maura Lucey (Bloody Mary), John Bruso (Luther Billis), Bob Buono (Lt. Joe Cable), Kathi Krawczyk (Lat), Jeanne Dudas (Ngana), Timmy Dubel (Jerome).

The Student Senate, one of the largest organizations in the school, is responsible for many of the activities and functions held throughout the year.

The '77-'78 Student Senate instituted the Big Brother-Big Sister Program which acquainted the freshman with their new surroundings. The Patron Drive and Thanksgiving Baskets were successfully and profitably run by the senators. In keeping with the spirit of Christmas, the Student Senate sponsored the school hall decorations.

Spirit week activities such as Button Day and the Pep Assembly were influential in building a new sense of school spirit. The Student Senate was also instrumental in providing the new dress code and the vending machine in the cafeteria.

To benefit the Tuition Assistance Program they conducted the raffle during February and March.

Other than this, we sponsored a course on photography-yearbook production.

Industrial Arts Club

Our Industrial Arts Club is busy all year long with many different activities. We have continually worked on repairing, refinishing and building various structures for many of the rooms in the school. The most significant contribution we have made is to instill in the student members a respect for the dignity of work. Also, we promote a high standard of workmanship. Their many field trips include a tour of WBEN-radio, Western New York Catholic Paper and the Canisius College Computer Science Department, along with stops at the National Weather Service, Nuclear Research Center and the L B School of Literary Science. Careers Club hopes that by their excursions they have made the public more aware of the interest the students of S M H. have in the adult world, and in their future. With the continued hardwork of it's members, the club will always be assured of success in the "future".

The staff of the Marian Gazette is made up of students from all four classes. We produce and circulate an edition of the newspaper each month. Even when we're not having actual production meetings, our staff is continually working on reporting new events and activities that surround the St. Mary's community. Our staff becomes actively involved in the Patron Drive by sponsoring a Faculty vs. Students volleyball game. Editors: Mary Lynn Heidle, Marlane Domrowski, Mr. Pino (Moderator), Mike Czerwonka, Sue Kotkiewicz, Frank Pawlikowski.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was kept very active all during the school year. We often helped the Administration in serving for various functions involving outside guests. Our famous money-making scheme, the Monster Sale, is always a huge success because of the hungry student body. The biggest project of the year was the induction ceremonies. Much hard work and planning went into this event so that new members could feel a sense of pride in their contributions to the school in aspects of leadership, academics, character and social activities. Cross Country

Cross Country is one of the hardest working teams in the school. The practices of 8 to 10 miles a day are long and grueling and would test the endurance of any person. All our effort and determination was worth while as we finished our season on a positive note with four wins and only two losses. The team voted Tom Walter the Most Valuable Player and John Roll the Most Spirited. John Roll also achieved being the most improved runner. Varsity Club

The Varsity Club is an organization that was formed for the purpose of promoting and supporting the athletic department of S.M.H. Because of this, all student boys and girls alike in any sport in school are members of the club. Every two months, a meeting is held by Mr. Woj, President Tim Coughlin, and the rest of the officers to think of fund raising ideas for various activities. Some being, equipment for the sports programs in school, the grade school tournament in the Spring, the sports banquet and any expenses that may come up during the various seasons. Being only years new, the Varsity Club has much room to grow. People are urged to take more of an interest in the club. The Bowling Team had a very successful year. Captain, Jan Toporek showed her usual excellence on the alleys, as did Missy Prorok. Sue Dudek and Ellen Racki. Sue Dudek walked away with the highest score and Jan Toporek with Most Valuable Player. All three of the teams, Freshmen, J.V. and Varsity took 2nd place standing in the 5 week tournament. This enabled us to advance to the playoffs between the Co-ed schools and the all-girls' schools on March 7. In the playoffs we finished second. Varsity Basketball

Varsity basketball could be described only as "super". By mid-January we knew we were play-off bound. Everyone on the team seemed to hold that spirit that we refer to as "Lancermania". A lot of hard work and sweat went into our unmistakably victorious season. All of the fans have much reason to be proud of the team and the work they've done. The team itself can hold their heads high knowing that they put their "all" into the season. Of course next year, with the valuable experience and necessary lessons that were learned, the team should excell even more through hard, long hours, and close, respected team work. J.V. Basketball

Our Junior Varsity Basketball team has taken second place in the Smith League for Catholic High Schools. Mr. Hadsall has kept the team hustling and working together for the entire season. The games were all hard-fought and exciting down to the very last minutes. Our enthusiasm for victory was enhanced by the many spirited spectators present at the games. Our strengths both offensively and defensively were evident at the close of each Lancer victory. There is encouraging potential for next years varsity team. Team members include: Greg Blatto, Kevin Setter, Troy Hirsch, John Schmitt, Chris Olivieri, Bill Denz, Dennis Mayer, Jerry Ferracio, Larry Branchino, Jim Warrington, Joe Catalano, Jim Skrip. Varsity Football

Teamwork was our greatest accomplishment this year in football. In the beginning we were a little unsure of ourselves, but when we realized our potential, it was "go, go, go" all the way! The year consisted of many victories. All were the result of hard-work and were well deserved. We put out like mad and the team record was the best known to S.M.H. in its history. This was due to the close knit team work, "Good people" who "stuck together" through thick and thin. "It's too bad it had to end," but we know it was done as well as we could do. Next year's team has the potential to be even better and more outstanding because of the incoming Juniors and what the Seniors have learned from this years season.
